KALA honours Sprint Queen

P T Usha in a face to face session with KALA members and guests

Kerala Arts and Literary Association (KALA) of UK honoured P T Usha, The Sprint Queen of India, at a special function held at Camberley, Surrey.

Usha, who brought glory to the country by winning numerous medals at international competitions, missed a medal at the Los Angeles Olympics in 1984 by one-hundredth of a second. In a "face to face" session with KALA members and guests, she talked about her experiences during her career as well as about the new sports school she had set up at Koyilandi in Kerala. She said that the objective of the school was to provide the best possible coaching and facilities to young athletes and groom them to become medal winners at Olympics level. She said that she was determined to do her best to help the younger generation have the facilities and modern training that she herself might have missed out. KALA members and friends made a donation of Rs 50, 000 to the school.
